MAURICIO POCHETTINO

"ALL OF THE PLAYERS CAN TAKE HAPPINESS AND PRIDE IN HARRY'S ACHIEVEMENTS AS THEY HAVE PLAYED THEIR PART AND CONTINUE TO SUPPORT HIM"

We find ourselves in the middle of a busy schedule of games and welcome David Moyes and his West Ham United team to Wembley.

They are an opponent we know well having already met twice this season. It is a London derby which makes tonight's game that little bit more special and I know we can count on you to get behind us and make as much noise as you can to help make the difference.

I am writing these notes ahead of our trip to Swansea City after two excellent results either side of Christmas Day.

Many sides will drop points travelling to Burnley this season which made our 3-0 victory even more impressive. To go to Turf Moor and dictate the game as we did from start to finish against a team playing so well made me extremely proud and set us up perfectly for the game against Southampton.

We carried on where we left off on Boxing Day at Wembley, dominating our opponents from the start. Once again, we showed that ruthless side to our game to ensure we made the most of our chances when they came and killed the match as a contest as we raced into a 4-0 lead just five minutes after half-time. Such an emphatic win was the perfect way to sign off the year in what was an extremely satisfying 2017 for the team. It will certainly motivate us to do even better in 2018.

Of course, I cannot discuss our final two games of 2017 and not mention Harry Kane, who scored hat-tricks in both and broke a number of calendar year records with his goals tally along the way. We are so proud of Harry for his achievements and the way he works every day. He is the perfect role model and deserves to be mentioned alongside the world's best.

All of the players can take happiness and pride in Harry's achievements as they have played their part and continue to support him and create the chances that he takes with such confidence.

Finally, I would like to wish you all a happy and healthy New Year on behalf of everyone at the Club. I hope that 2018 brings you and your loved ones plenty of good luck and happiness and that together we continue to see success in what will be a landmark year for our Club.

Enjoy the game.

RECORD BREAKER!
Harry Kane was the man of the moment again on Boxing Day as his hat-trick helped us to a 5-2 win over Southampton and saw him break the record for Premier League goals in a calendar year, his third goal making it 39 in total for 2017.

DELE DELIGHT AT SAINTS SUCCESS

Dele Alli was back on the scoresheet in our Boxing Day win against Southampton here at Wembley Stadium…and spoke of how much pleasure that performance gave the players after the game.

The England midfielder coolly stroked home our third goal in the 5-2 success over the Saints and also assisted goals for Harry Kane and Heung-Min Son on the day, as we produced a real festive treat for our supporters to make it four wins in our last five Premier League games.

"IT'S ENJOYABLE WHEN YOU PLAY LIKE THAT, WITH EVERYONE PLAYING THE PASSES"

"It was a really strong performance all over the pitch – we're disappointed to concede the goals but it was a fantastic display and every player did well," explained Dele.

"It's enjoyable when you play like that, getting on the ball, creating space for each other and everyone playing the passes. It was a really enjoyable game for us. It was important that we kept getting the goals because at 2-0 you never know what's going to happen, so it was important we got the third and the fourth and it was a great performance.

"We're in good form at the moment," he added. "We don't want to look into it too much though, we've just got to keep playing as we are, keep putting in performances and working hard for each other.

"We're enjoying playing together and hopefully the fans are enjoying it as well."

PREMIER LEAGUE FIXTURE CHANGES

The Premier League broadcast selections for February has seen three of our matches chosen for live television coverage.

Our visit to Anfield to take on Liverpool has been moved to Sunday, February 4, and will kick off at 4.30pm, while the north London derby against Arsenal remains on Saturday, February 10 but now kicks off at 12.30pm.

Finally, our away game at Crystal Palace now takes place on Monday, February 26, kicking off at 8pm.

However, in the event of either ourselves or Palace being involved in an FA Cup fifth round replay during that week, the Premier League match will revert to Sunday, February 25, kick-off 12pm.

DATE SET FOR CHERRIES CLASH

Our Under-18s will visit AFC Bournemouth in the fourth round of the FA Youth Cup on Tuesday, January 16.

The match will be played at the Vitality Stadium, with kick-off at 7pm. Tickets will be priced at £3 for adults and £1 for concessions, and will be available to purchase at the stadium on the night.

We made it through to round four after beating Preston North End 5-0 at home, while the Cherries won 3-0 against Hull City.

Meanwhile, our Under-23s' Premier League 2 fixture away to Swansea City has been brought forward to Friday, February 16, kick-off 7pm at Landore Training Ground.

LOAN WATCH

It's been an eventful festive period for some of our players out on loan, capped by a goal for Josh Onomah for Aston Villa against Brentford on Boxing Day.

Sadly for the midfielder, his 30th-minute header was in vain as his side went down 2-1 at Griffin Park.

A regular starter under Steve Bruce, Josh also hit the target in a 2-1 home win over Sunderland in November but, unfortunately, a slight injury forced him to miss out on a head-to-head battle with Spurs colleague Cameron Carter-Vickers last Saturday as Sheffield United went to Villa Park and battled out a 2-2 draw.

Cameron Carter-Vickers

On-loan centre-half Cameron has started all but one game for the Blades since the middle of September and, after his outing at Villa, helped keep a clean sheet in a 3-0 home win over Sunderland on Boxing Day. His side are currently on 41 points and occupying the sixth and final play-off spot, with Josh's Villa just three points behind in eighth.

In League One, defender Connor Ogilvie continues to be a regular starter for Gillingham as they look to clamber away from the drop zone. After a stint at centre-half in November, he's been back in his usual left-back berth recently and was part of the side that drew 1-1 at home with Oxford United on Boxing Day. The Gills are currently 17th on 27 points, four above the relegation trap door.

In Australia, young goalkeeper Tom Glover has been on the bench for Central Coast Mariners' last four games in the A-League. His last domestic run-out for them came in a 1-1 home draw with Melbourne Victory at the end of October.

Josh Onomah

Striker Vincent Janssen, meanwhile, has been out injured for Fenerbahce in Turkey of late, but was on target in a 6-0 thrashing of Adana Demirspor in a Turkish Cup fifth round, first leg tie on November 29.

European praise for Sanchez and Winks

Davinson Sanchez and Harry Winks have been recognised for their impressive contributions on the European stage as we head into the New Year.

Centre-back Davinson, a summer signing from Ajax, and central midfielder Harry, a product of our Academy system, both shone as we romped to top spot in our UEFA Champions League group this season, brushing aside holders Real Madrid and German giants Borussia Dortmund in the process.

We've now got a mouth-watering last 16 tie with Juventus to look forward to in February and, for Davinson and Harry, both still only 21, it's a chance to carry over the sort of form that has seen them both named in UEFA.com's Champions League Breakthrough Team of 2017.

Made up of players aged 24 and under who made their Champions League debut in 2017, or who only had limited prior experience and made a major leap during the calendar year, the team was put together by UEFA.com reporters and editors and recognises some of the brightest young talents at European football's top table.

On Davinson, they commented: "Key to Ajax reaching last season's UEFA Europa League final, Sanchez has made the step up to the UEFA Champions League with ease. He oozes class in possession but equally thrives on the defensive nuts and bolts and is rarely cowed despite his tender years."

And on Harry, they noted: "He is now a central cog in Spurs' midfield, having made just three Premier League starts before this season. A deep-lying playmaker with fine control and distribution, Winks impressed in the Real Madrid double-header, earning comparisons to Tottenham old boy Luka Modrić."

According to Davinson, it's now important to keep improving as we move into 2018.

"Always it's an honour to be talked about like this because the Champions League is the biggest club competition in the world, but it's important to keep the level of performance and keep going," said the Colombian international.

"It's not only about finishing the group but to go to the next stage. For us it's great because we have very good players and we have the capacity to play many games in the competition."

A FOOTBALLING DYNASTY

Andy Greeves tells a story from our vast history that has a link to our matchday opponents. This afternoon, he looks at the footballing careers of the Allen family - including Clive and Paul, who turned out for both ourselves and West Ham United during their playing days

In the summer of 1984, Clive Darren Allen followed in his father's footsteps by signing for Tottenham Hotspur.

Clive's dad Les had made quite an impression during his six years as a Spurs player. He arrived from Chelsea – where his career began with 11 goals in 44 league appearances – in December, 1959.

The inside-forward netted 15 times in 19 appearances in his first half-season with us, including five goals in our record 13-2 victory over Crewe Alexandra in the FA Cup on February 3, 1960.

The Dagenham-born player was a key member of our Double-winning side of 1960-61, scoring 22 league goals and four in the FA Cup that campaign. Along with Ron Henry, John White and skipper Danny Blanchflower, Les was an ever-present during the season, playing all 42 league games and seven FA Cup matches.

Jimmy Greaves' arrival in December, 1961, saw Les' first-team opportunities become more restricted, eventually prompting a move to Queens Park Rangers in 1965. During his time at White Hart Lane, he scored 75 goals in 147 appearances for us in all competitions. He retired from playing in 1969, having been a member of the QPR side that had become the first third-tier side to win the League Cup some two years earlier.

Les went on to manage the Hoops between 1969-70 and the Allens' connection with the West London club continued when Clive began his professional career there in the late 1970s. Goal scoring was clearly in the blood, with Clive netting a hat-trick on his home debut for Rangers in a 5-1 victory over Coventry City on April 28, 1979.

After 32 goals in 49 league matches for QPR, Clive briefly joined Arsenal in the summer of 1980 but did not feature in a competitive match for the Gunners. He left Highbury two months later to sign for Crystal Palace. The Stepney-born striker was the Eagles' top goal scorer during his one and only season with them in 1980-81, with 11 strikes in all competitions. He returned to QPR in 1981, notching a further 40 goals in 87 league games through until 1984, while he also lined-up against us in the FA Cup Final of 1982.

Clive was born on May 20, 1961 – just 14 days after his father Les won the FA Cup and completed the 'Double' with us. Bearing his dad's place in our history in mind, our ex-striker – now a football pundit – has mentioned on numerous occasions how he felt it was his "destiny to play for Spurs".

Given the goal-laden career he would go on to have in a Spurs shirt, there is little surprise that Clive managed to score on his debut for us. He bagged a brace in our 4-1 win at Everton on the opening day of the 1984-85 season, during a campaign in which he got seven goals in 13 league matches overall. He was also on target against Liverpool in the League Cup and netted in both home and away ties against Club Brugge in the UEFA Cup that season.

Clive with his PFA Player of the Year award in 1987

The 1985-86 campaign saw him get nine goals in 19 league appearances, along with three FA Cup strikes in four matches before his season-of-seasons in 1986-87. Netting a hat-trick on the opening day of that campaign in our 3-0 win at Aston Villa, Clive went on to score 49 goals in all competitions that term. No player associated with a top-flight English club has since equalled or bettered that tally in a single season, while his 12 goals in nine League Cup appearances that season is also a competition record.

Clive's goals help fire us to a third-place finish in Division One and we also reached the semi-final of the League Cup and the final of the FA Cup. Team silverware might have proven elusive but the forward picked up two personal accolades in the shape of the PFA Player of the Year and FWA Footballer of the Year Awards in 1987.

In his final season as a Spurs player in 1987-88, Clive scored 13 goals in 37 appearances prior to a summer move to French side Bordeaux. During his four years with us, he had managed 84 goals in 135 competitive matches for us, including 60 league goals in 105 games.

Between 1992 and 1994, Clive turned out for West Ham United,

Paul and Clive at the premiere of 'The Lane' docufilm last month

Paul Allen

Cousins Paul and Clive at White Hart Lane

netting 17 times in 38 league matches for the Irons. That included 14 goals in 27 Division One games in 1992-93, that helped the Hammers to a second-placed finish in the table and promotion to the Premier League. He also represented the likes of Manchester City, Chelsea, Millwall and Carlisle United during his career, before hanging up his boots in 1995.

Clive wasn't the first Allen to have played for both ourselves and West Ham United – that distinction belongs to his cousin Paul.

Paul Kevin Allen started his career at Upton Park and became the youngest player to appear in a Wembley-based FA Cup Final in 1980, aged just 17 years and 256 days old. West Ham – then plying their trade in the old Second Division – saw off their top-flight opponents Arsenal in that showpiece match with Trevor Brooking's strike securing a 1-0 victory. That was one of 197 appearances the midfielder played for the Irons until 1985, scoring 11 goals in the process.

His subsequent move to Spurs saw him line up alongside his cousin Clive over the next three seasons. He netted on his debut for us, in a 4-0 home win over Watford on the opening day of the 1985-86.

Paul made a total 377 appearances for us between 1985 and 1993, scoring 28 goals. He started in the same team as Clive in our FA Cup Final defeat to Coventry in 1987 but fortunately, got his hands on the cup four years later as we beat Nottingham Forest 2-1 after extra-time in the final of 1991.

"The whole weekend of the FA Cup Final is incredible if you win it… obviously doing the open-top bus tour on the Sunday as well as the game on the Saturday," Paul reflected recently, on his two FA Cup successes. "I was fortunate to win it with both West Ham and Spurs and there's nothing better than seeing the fans with your team-mates and holding up the cup for them!"

Paul also featured for Southampton, Luton Town (loan), Stoke City (loan), Swindon Town, Bristol City and Millwall in the latter years of his career before retiring from the professional game in 1998. He is one of no less than eight members of the Allen family to have played the game professionally to date.

Les Allen

Clive's son Ollie was part of our youth team prior to a move to Birmingham City in 2005. Les' brother Dennis started his career with Charlton Athletic and turned out for the likes of Reading, AFC Bournemouth, Oostende and Cheltenham Town during his 16-year career. Dennis' son Martin scored 25 goals in 190 league matches for West Ham United between 1989 and 1995, while he also played for QPR, Portsmouth and Southend United before embarking on a long career in football management.

Martin's 25-year-old son Charlie currently plays for Farnborough, having turned out for Notts County and Gillingham earlier at the beginning of his career.

Clive's younger brother Bradley is one of our academy coaches these days. He represented the likes of Queens Park Rangers, Charlton Athletic, Colchester United (loan), Grimsby Town, Peterborough United and Bristol Rovers before retiring from playing in 2004.

IT'S A FAMILY THING

On January 29, 1910, a significant piece of family history was made as brothers Danny, Bobby and Alex Steel all lined-up in our 0-0 draw with Bradford City at White Hart Lane. Danny and Bobby regularly featured together in our first team in our early seasons in the Football League between 1910 and 1912, but Alex made just one appearance for us in that game against the Bantams.

Since the Steels, there has only been once instance of brothers taking the field for a league match for us since, when John and Andy Polston played in our 1-0 defeat to Crystal Palace at White Hart Lane on March 3, 1990.

Interview with our England international right-back Kieran Trippier, who insists mentality is key as we gear up for tonight's London derby against the Hammers

There's nothing like a London derby to kick-off our home fixtures for 2018 – and Kieran Trippier is hoping to claim the early New Year bragging rights.

But he also insists that, if we are to take all three points this evening against West Ham United, we'll need to stay fully focussed for the entire contest and not allow the Hammers a way back into the game, as has happened on our previous two meetings this season.

Honours are even so far, after we triumphed 3-2 at the London Stadium in our Premier League fixture in September, while tonight's opponents won by the same scoreline on their visit here in the Carabao Cup a month later.

On both occasions though, we were in complete control, only to give the Hammers hope each time. Leading 3-0 in the league game, Javier Hernandez pulled a goal back before we were reduced to 10 men when Serge Aurier received a red card 20 minutes from time. That made for an anxious time for us, even more so when Chiekhou Kouyate netted another one and we were under pressure for the closing minutes.

We held on to take maximum points though, but that wasn't the case in the cup game. Goals from Moussa Sissoko and Dele Alli gave us a 2-0 half-time advantage in the fourth-round tie and the visiting supporters vented their frustrations towards their own players as the teams headed for the tunnel at the interval.

It was a very different story in the second period though. A brace from Andre Ayew levelled the game before Angelo Ogbonna scored a 70th-minute winner to complete a remarkable and unexpected turnaround and end our interest in the competition for another season.

It's such a cliché that form goes out of the window for a derby match, but our games against the Hammers this term have simply emphasised the fact, to the point that even form within a derby can go out of the window!

"IT DOESN'T MATTER WHAT DERBY GAME YOU'RE PLAYING IN, THE ATMOSPHERE AND MOMENTUM CAN CHANGE SO QUICKLY AND THAT CERTAINLY HAPPENED IN BOTH GAMES AGAINST WEST HAM THIS SEASON"

"It doesn't matter what derby game you're playing in, the atmosphere and momentum can change so quickly and that certainly happened in both games against West Ham this season," explained Kieran.

"We were in control at their place before Serge got sent off, but they scored which lifted their crowd and suddenly it's a very different game. And I really can't explain what happened in the cup match. Their first goal in the second half gave them a boost, their fans were behind them again and the momentum swung completely.

"That was a disappointing night and we have to make sure we stay focussed this evening. We'll be looking to start with a high tempo and try to keep that intensity going to ensure we take all three points and get the New Year here at Wembley off to a great start."

We certainly entered 2018 in good spirits following festive wins over Burnley and Southampton, making it five wins from six games in all competitions. That comes after a sticky spell where we found victories hard to come by and suffered defeats to the Hammers, Manchester United, Arsenal and Leicester City.

The sign of any good team is their ability to respond to setbacks and we've done that in recent weeks with Trips revealing that it was hard work at Hotspur Way that led to the change in fortunes.

"It was a difficult time when those results weren't going our way, but we would look back on them, review the matches and then get out onto the training pitches and work on what was going wrong. We looked at where mistakes were being made and ensured we learned from them.

"The only way you can turn a corner when you suffer a dip in form is to work hard and start picking up results again to build up your confidence," added the former Burnley full-back. "I think we've done that now and we're feeling good. We've started to play our football again and hopefully the results will keep coming."

One man who has helped our turnaround is a certain Harry Kane, who seems to be breaking records and setting milestones at such a pace these days, it's almost hard to keep up!

Back-to-back hat-tricks not only saw us beat Burnley and Southampton but also saw him become the Premier League's top scorer in a calendar year with 39 goals in 2017, breaking Alan Shearer's tally of 36 and move into the top 10 in our all-time goalscorers list with 123 goals. Not that any of it comes as a surprise to Kieran.

"Harry is a top professional and sets the example to all of us," he added. "He's the first one out on the pitch in training and the last one off, he works on his finishing all the time, is always around to help the boys out and is just so relaxed and easy to talk to. For me, he is world class. Even in the games where he doesn't score, people don't notice the amount of work he puts in for the team. He's got everything and is still very young, so it's no surprise that he's scored so many goals already and I'm sure he'll go on to score many, many more throughout his career.

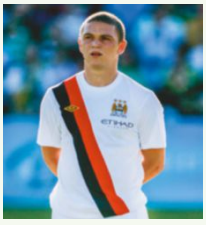
"When 'H' got his hat-trick against Burnley, we were all talking about it and we all really wanted him to break Alan Shearer's record, so when he scored his first against Southampton, everyone was delighted for him. He deserves it."

Having enjoyed a 2017 which saw him make his England breakthrough – making his debut in a friendly with France, featuring in a World

CAREER SO FAR

EARLY SUCCESS

Born in Bury, he joined Manchester City's Academy at the age of nine, turning professional in 2008 and helping City win the FA Youth Cup in 2007-08.

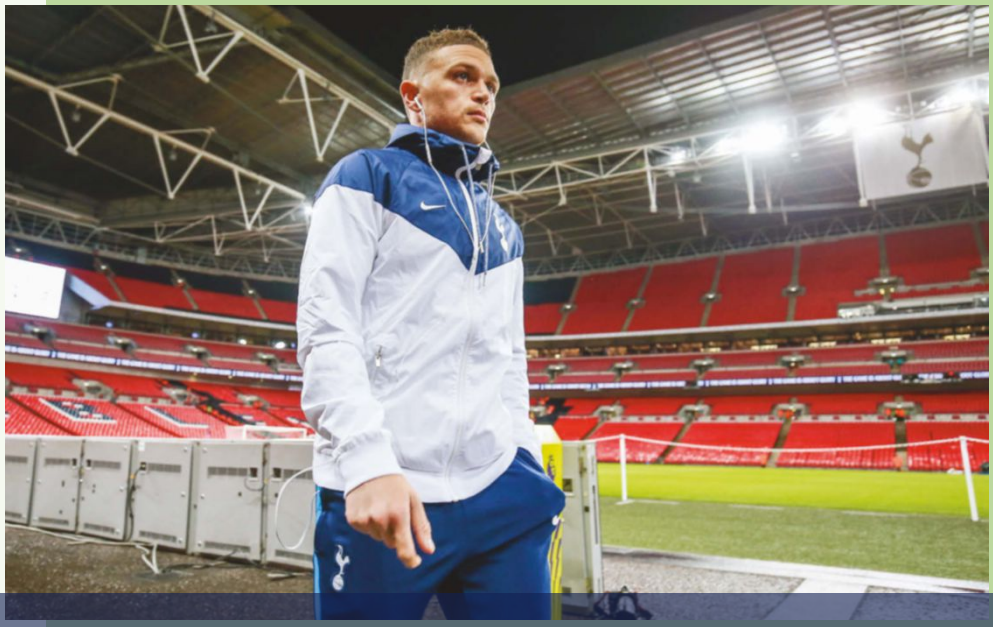


LOAN SPELLS

Joined Barnsley on loan for two spells, the second one for season 2010-11 in which he scored his first senior goal against Leeds United in February, 2011. Named 'Young Player of the Year' at the club.

BURNLEY BOUND

Initially moved to Turf Moor on loan in July, 2011, but made the move permanent in January, 2012. Named in the PFA Championship Team of the Year for 2012-13 and 2013-14, helping Burnley to promotion in the latter.



"I REALLY FEEL LIKE I'VE DEVELOPED AS A PLAYER HERE, FROM MY POSITIONAL PLAY DOWN TO MY PHYSICAL CONDITION"

Cup qualifier against Lithuania and playing here against Germany in November – and become a key figure here at Spurs, Kieran is hoping to continue his progression this year. Competition for places remains as fierce as ever, but he's never been one to shy away from a challenge.

"We have quality players in every position and that's what you expect at a club like Spurs," said Trips. "We have myself and Serge competing for the right-back slot along with Kyle Walker-Peters, who has been doing very well this season, so all I can do is work hard in training, try to catch the manager's eye and do my best when ever I get the chance.

"I really feel like I've improved and developed as a player here, from my positional play down to my physical condition and the manager and the staff here are doing a great job. Now we want to go on and make this a good season. There are a lot of teams competing for the Champions League places in the table at the moment so we need to keep our levels and performances high, keep trying to win games and the more we do that, hopefully success will follow."

SIGNING FOR SPURS

Moved to N17 in June, 2015, making his debut for us in October that year against Bournemouth and scoring his only goal to date in a 1-0 win v Watford in February, 2016.

ENGLAND DUTY

Previously an England youth international, he won his first senior cap in a friendly against France in June this year, also playing against Lithuania and Germany since.

FIFA WORLD CUP RUSSIA 2018

ROAD TO RUSSIA

While there's still a lot to focus on at club level, the turn of the year means the countdown to this summer's World Cup in Russia is on! Ahead of the showpiece tournament, BILLY SHAW chats to members of our current squad who have helped their respective nations qualify over the last two years to find out about their memories of past World Cups and their predictions for 2018. The series begins today with France international midfielder Moussa Sissoko…

What was the first World Cup you can remember watching?
When France won in 1998. I was in Paris with my family and it was a good memory for me. I remember watching the final with my cousin at home. Everyone in my family loves football and I'll always remember being there in front of the TV and enjoying this game.

Who were the stars that year?
For me, it was Zinedine Zidane. I remember in the final, he scored twice against Brazil and had an amazing game. He was the key player of the whole tournament for France really, even after being sent off in the group stage.

Have you ever been to a World Cup match as a supporter?
No, never. Sadly I didn't have the chance to go and watch a game when it took place in France. But now I'm lucky because I've had the chance to play in this type of game when I was involved four years ago in Brazil.

France win the World Cup at home in 1998

Zinedine Zidane

If there was one World Cup game in history that you could have gone to, which one would it be and why?
The final in 1998. France won the World Cup at home in an amazing final – I would have loved to have seen it live with my own eyes.

What are the best memories you have of your own country at the World Cup?
The best memory for me on a personal level is when I played at the 2014 World Cup. It was my first World Cup and in Brazil as well – it's amazing to have a World Cup there. We did quite well, we lost in the quarter-finals against the winners, Germany, but for me it was a fantastic moment to be there representing France on the big stage.

Ronaldinho deceives everyone with a free-kick against England in 2002

What is the best match you've ever seen at the finals?
Good question! It would probably have to be the 1998 final when France beat Brazil 3-0.

And the best goal?
When Ronaldinho scored that free-kick against England in 2002. He struck it from the right side, everyone thought he was going to cross it but he shot over the goalkeeper and into the top corner.

What is the most unusual kit you've seen at the tournament?
Not so much because of an unusual colour but a strange jersey was Cameroon. They had a very tight-fitting kit which was quite strange to me! I can't remember which year they had it, though.

Who do you think will make an impact at this year's World Cup?
I'd have to say England. They had a hard Euro 2016 in France but since then they've qualified well, they finished first in their group, they have a good team and a strong squad and they can do well. I'm not saying they will win because I hope that France will win but I'm sure they can go far!

"THE BEST MEMORY FOR ME PERSONALLY IS WHEN I PLAYED AT THE 2014 WORLD CUP"

Moussa fancies England to make an impact...

What's being said

Damien Degorre, journalist at French newspaper L'Equipe

"Moussa helped the French team a lot during the last World Cup. I remember a game against Switzerland during the first stage in Brazil when he was very good, he was the best player during the final of the last European Championships in 2016 as well so he has talent but the past won't be enough to convince Didier Deschamps (France manager) to take Moussa to Russia. He will have to play well with Tottenham during the next five months because the landscape of French football is really very different now – the competition for places is getting stronger and stronger. Moussa has been an important player in the squad under Deschamps during the last two or three years but now you have a lot of young players like Moussa Dembele, Thomas Lemar and Kylian Mbappe who can play in the same position as him. Even if Deschamps likes Sissoko, he will have to be very efficient with Tottenham during the second half of the season if he wants to have a chance to be at the World Cup in the summer."

REMEMBER WHEN...

...we played West Ham United in our first home game of the year back in 1977? It wasn't the best of seasons for us as we were ultimately relegated from Division One, but when the Hammers visited White Hart Lane on January 1st 40 years ago, we'd gone three home matches without defeat, beating Stoke City and drawing 2-2 with Manchester City and Arsenal. The Irons had beaten us 5-3 at Upton Park on October 30, a game in which Keith Osgood scored a penalty and John Duncan was also on target...and both players repeated that on this occasion as we won 2-1. Trevor Brooking netted for the visitors, who had started the game second from bottom while we were one place higher. However, while we went down to Division Two at the end of the campaign, the Hammers survived.

ON THIS DAY
JANUARY 4

SPURS 2-0 CHELSEA

Chelsea were on a 13-game winning run in the Premier League when they arrived at the Lane on this day last season…but Dele Alli put paid to that! The England midfielder scored a brace for the third straight game to help us to a superb victory, our fifth on the spin in the division, as we moved up to third in the table.

2006
MANCHESTER CITY 0-2 SPURS

We opened up 2006 on this day with a visit to Manchester City, having won five of our previous seven in the Premier League. Egyptian striker Mido gave us the lead at the City of Manchester Stadium, as it was called then, before Robbie Keane wrapped up the points with an 83rd-minute second for us.

SPURS 4-0 LEICESTER CITY

Having beaten Leicester City 2-0 in the previous year's FA Cup third round, we faced them again at the same stage in 1958 and enjoyed another cup win. Bobby Smith netted twice while there were also goals from Terry Medwin and Alfie Stokes. Three years later, we met in the FA Cup again – this time here at Wembley as we clinched the Double.

MANAGER:

DAVID MOYES

The Scotsman was appointed Hammers boss earlier this season to replace Slaven Bilic, having previously had stints at Sunderland, Real Sociedad and Manchester United. Moyes, who began his managerial career at Preston North End before taking charge of over 500 games at Everton, won his only trophy as United boss at Wembley in the 2013 Community Shield with a 2-0 win against Wigan Athletic.

FORM GUIDE:

A 4-1 home defeat to Liverpool in the first week of November left the Hammers in 17th position in the Premier League and with the grim spectre of relegation looming the club replaced manager Slaven Billic with David Moyes. Results have since picked up with a 1-0 win against Chelsea at the London Stadium indicative of improved performances and although the Hammers are far from safe yet they arrive in 2018 intent on looking forward instead of over their shoulders.

25

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 19.04.87
After spending last season on loan in Italy with Torino, Hart is now having a similar stint with West Ham having previously been first choice at Manchester City. A four-times Premier League Golden Glove winner, 38 of Hart's 75 appearances for England have been at Wembley and he has captained them twice, most recently against Lithuania here last March.

13

DATE OF BIRTH: 03.01.87
Sevilla-born Adrian signed for West Ham in 2013 and was the Hammers' number one until losing his place to Darren Randolph last season. The arrival of Joe Hart meant the Spaniard was again out of the side but he has forced his way back in under the management of David Moyes since an impressive display against Manchester City last month when Hart was unable to face his parent club.

DATE OF BIRTH: 03.07.88
Reid first joined the Irons from Denmark's FC Midtjylland in 2010 and is now in his seventh season as a West Ham player with his place in Hammers' history secured when he scored the last ever goal at the Boleyn Ground in 2016. Born in Auckland, Reid captains New Zealand at international level and was part of the All Whites side beaten by Peru in a World Cup Play-off in November.

ZAB FAB

Pablo Zabaleta has excelled at winning possession for West Ham, averaging 3.2 tackles per game this season, the most in the Hammers' squad.

3 AARON CRESSWELL

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 15.12.89
Liverpool-born left-back Cresswell began his career with Tranmere Rovers, spending three seasons at Prenton Park before a 2011 move to Ipswich Town. After almost 150 games for the Tractor Boys he joined West Ham in 2014 won two club player of the year awards in 2014-15. Capped three times by England, he'll be targeting a place in Gareth Southgate's World Cup squad in 2018.

19 JAMES COLLINS

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 23.08.93
This is Collins' 11th season as a West Ham player having first played for the club between 2005 and 2009 before returning in 2012 after three years with Aston Villa where he played at Wembley in the 2010 League Cup final. Having made 51 appearances for Wales and represented his country at Euro 2016, Collins announced his retirement from international duty in November.

5 PABLO ZABALETA

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 16.01.85
Zabaleta racked up over 300 appearances for Man City after being signed from Espanyol in 2008 and went on to win two Premier Leagues, two EFL Cups and an FA Cup during his nine seasons at the Etihad Stadium. A former team-mate of Mauricio Pochettino during their time at Espanyol, he signed for West Ham last summer and was an Olympic Gold medal winner with Argentina in 2008.

41 DECLAN RICE

POSITION: DEFENDER/MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 14.01.99
Rice was signed up by West Ham after being released by Chelsea and excelled for the Hammers' Under-23s last season, captaining them to promotion from Premier League 2 Division 2. Capable of playing at centre-back or in midfield, he was named as Young Hammer of the Year for 2016-17 and is a Republic of Ireland Under-21 international.

8 CHEIKHOU KOUYATE

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 21.12.89
Senegal skipper Kouyate made history in 2016 when he scored West Ham's first two goals at the London Stadium in a Europa League match against NK Domzale. The Dakar-born midfielder spent five seasons with Anderlecht before moving to East London in 2014 and has captained Senegal to their first World Cup since 2002.

10 MANUEL LANZINI

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 15.02.93
Lanzini debuted for River Plate in 2010 aged 17 and had a loan spell with Fluminese in Brazil before becoming a regular for the Buenos Aires-based giants. After moving to the UAE Arabian Gulf League in 2014 to play for Al Jazira Club he spent 2015-16 on loan at West Ham before signing permanently and won his first couple of Argentina caps in 2017.

30 MICHAIL ANTONIO

POSITION: FORWARD/MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 28.03.90
Versatile Antonio was Hammer of the Year for 2016-17 after netting nine goals in 29 Premier League appearances – his best tally in the top division of English football – and signing a new four-year contract. Antonio arrived from Nottingham Forest in 2015 having started his career at Reading and spent time at Cheltenham Town, Southampton, Colchester United and Sheffield Wednesday.

POSITION: MIDFIELDER/FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 27.03.92
Obiang spent time with Atletico Madrid after playing for local Madrid teams as a schoolboy but moved to Italy as a 16-year-old to link up with Sampdoria. He went on to make over 100 appearances for I Blucerchiati before being signed by West Ham in 2015 and was a regular in the side last season until an ankle injury suffered against Leicester City in March ended his campaign.

FOUL PLAY

Javier Hernandez has endured some rough treatment from defenders on his return to the Premier League, being fouled an average of 2.4 times per game in the league this term.

31 EDIMILSON FERNANDES

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 15.04.96
Born in Switzerland, but of Portuguese and Cape Verdean descent, Fernandes came through the ranks at FC Sion and caught the eye of scouts during their 2015-16 Europa League campaign when he twice played against Liverpool. A move to West Ham followed in 2016 and later the 21-year-old made his international debut for Switzerland against the Faroe Islands.

9 ANDY CARROLL

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 06.01.89
A Wembley goalscorer for England against Ghana in 2011 and for Liverpool in the 2012 FA Cup semi-final against Everton and 2012 FA Cup final against Chelsea. Born in Gateshead, he started his career with Newcastle United and joined the Hammers initially on loan after a spell at Anfield. Has made over 100 appearances for West Ham.

15 DIAFRA SAKHO

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 24.12.89
Injuries restricted Sakho to just four appearances and one goal in 2016-17 but he has played regularly this season with perhaps his most important goal coming in Senegal's 2-0 win against South Africa in November to book their spot at World Cup 2018. A West Ham player since 2014, he joined the Hammers from Metz where he had netted almost 50 goals in four seasons.

17 JAVIER HERNANDEZ

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 07.07.92
Hernandez, aka 'Chicharito', is Mexico's all-time leading goalscorer and with his tally currently standing at 49 goals in 99 appearances it appears that next month's friendly against Bosnia in San Antonio, Texas could be a big night for him. A West Ham player since July, the 29-year-old previously scored over a century of goals for Manchester United, Real Madrid and Bayer Leverkusen.

20 ANDRE AYEW

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 17.12.89
Scorer of two goals in six minutes when West Ham visited Wembley in the Carabao Cup in October, Ayew became the Hammers' record signing when bought from Swansea City in 2016 although his £20.5 million transfer fee has since been surpassed by Marko Arnautovic's acquisition. A Ghanian international, Ayew was the leading goalscorer at the 2015 Africa Cup of Nations.

GOLD DUST

LINKING UP WITH TONIGHT'S VISITORS. JOHN FENNELLY RECALLS THE MEN AND MOMENTS FROM OUR SHARED PAST

DOUBLE EDGE

When Dave Dunmore arrived at the Lane from Third Division (North) York City in February, 1954, he could never have imagined the ferocity of the Spurs debut that awaited him – in front of 64,311 fans against Arsenal at Highbury!

Dave was asked to replace injured legend Len Duquemin at centre-forward and certainly played his part in our 3-0 win, setting up George Robb for our opener. Robb then scored our second before crossing for Sonny Walters to head the third.

Dunmore had scored 25 goals in 48 league games for York and his Spurs tally was also impressive – 23 goals in 75 matches with another three in six FA Cup appearances. And when he reached West Ham, his league goals return was 16 in just 36 outings.

Dave was born in Whitehaven and certainly pulled in the scouts at Bootham Crescent so it was no surprise that we had to pay a sizeable £10,500 fee to bring him to White Hart Lane. His early days were interrupted by National Service and, although he was up against Duquemin and then England's Bobby Smith, he battled on and never fell below the high standard that he set himself.

And when we opted to swap him with West Ham's versatile John Smith in March, 1960, that deal was worth a reported £20,000 so Dunmore had certainly enhanced his reputation in the top flight.

He was a Hammer for just over a year before making the short move to Orient where he famously helped them to promotion to the First Division in 1962, the first time that the Brisbane Road club had reached that level.

Triple Measure

Dave Mackay scored a hat-trick when we drew 4-4 with the Hammers at the Lane in December, 1962. John Smith was also on target for us with Joe Kirkup, Ronnie Boyce, Martin Peters and Tony Scott sharing the West Ham goals. We finished second behind champions Everton at the end of the season.

GOLD DUST

LOCAL HERO

Ralph Ward made his Spurs debut in a 3-1 defeat by West Ham at the Lane in March, 1936. The Hammers would finish fourth in Division Two that season with Spurs one place below.

Ward, nicknamed 'Butcher' as that had been his previous profession, was born in Oadby, and played for England Schools before Leicester City spotted him in local football and took him on as an amateur in 1928. But it was Bradford Park Avenue who offered him professional terms within a year.

We were impressed by him when he lined up at full-back for Avenue against us over two games in the fifth round of the FA Cup in February, 1936. He joined our ranks the following month.

Ralph, who later became our captain, was our regular penalty taker, and stayed with us for a decade also guesting for Arsenal, Bradford City, Avenue again and Fulham during World War Two. His consistency was immense – as was the ferocity of his tackling.

He transferred to Crewe Alexandra in the summer of 1946 where he later served as manager.

Front Page

The year 1936 also saw the abdication of Edward VIII and his younger brother Bertie become George VI. The first public television service was launched by the BBC from Alexandra Palace and the Spitfire had its inaugural flight. The liner Queen Mary left on her maiden voyage and the Suez treaty was signed.

Freddie Bartholomew was starring in 'Little Lord Fauntleroy' at the cinema along with Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers (pictured) in 'Follow the Fleet'.

MAIN ISSUE

The programme for West Ham's visit on March 14, 1936, was our usual four-page issue, printed on thin pink paper and costing one penny. It featured the standard off-the-wall cartoon on the cover, this time making a political point concerning how the league was organising its fixtures.

It seems the original fixture list had been abandoned and a fresh set were announced for each weekend. As the programme explained: "Only clubs that had long distances to travel should be informed on Thursday afternoon of each week whom they must meet, while home clubs had to wait until Friday before they knew the club that would visit them."

It added: "Thank goodness" after "two Saturdays of that muddle" the League Management Committee had binned the idea!

All that explanation left just one paragraph to welcome West Ham: "We have had many strenuous encounters with West Ham in the past, and there will be another this afternoon."

FEBRUARY HALF TERM PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES ON SALE NOW

Our Global Coaching's holiday Player Development Programmes return this half-term from Monday-Friday, February 12-16, and will take place across Essex, Hertfordshire and North London.

Our player development syllabus has been created by our Academy staff, focussing on every aspect of the game including goal scoring, defending, possession and domination.

Each session will be focussed on a specific element of the game and our FA and UEFA-qualified coaches use inspiration from our current first team and Academy to aid the development of the young players present on the course.

A professional and structured environment is created to allow all players to demonstrate flair and individualism.

Young players will have the opportunity to learn, play and develop their footballing skills in similar training sessions that the likes of Harry Kane, Harry Winks and Kyle Walker-Peters have experienced.

Each player will be individually monitored by the Global Coaching team to ensure they train with players of similar abilities and ages, with the overall aim to progress every player through the ability levels.

SMILING SANCHEZ GLAD TO BE BACK...

Davinson Sanchez is delighted to be back in the frame and winning matches after feeling crushed by his recent three-game ban.

The defensive powerhouse, still only 21, has been superb at the back since his summer arrival from Ajax and had been virtually ever-present in the Premier League and Champions League until a trip to Watford on December 2.

During that game, he caught Hornets star Richarlison with his arm and was shown a straight red card, ruling him out of the following matches against Stoke City, Brighton & Hove Albion and Manchester City.

The suspension hit him hard.

Forced to sit on the sidelines, Davinson said he found it so frustrating not to be able to play his part on the pitch but, after coming straight back into the side for our 3-0 win at Burnley on December 23 and then helping us to a 5-2 home victory over Southampton on Boxing Day, he's now got his smile back!

"Of course, it was difficult (to be suspended) because my mentality is always that I try to help the team, I try to help my team-mates and when I don't play it's so difficult," he said.

"I felt so despondent because I am a player who finds it tough when I can't help the coach and the team.

"The red card… I had to be calm and take the decision. I came back in for the game against Burnley and I tried to give the most I could in my performance, then we had a big result against Southampton.

"They were good games for the team and we got back on track with two very good results, which I am very happy about. Now we have to keep competing and improving."

That victory over the Saints last time out here came courtesy of a fine all-round team performance, with a fast start to the game laying the foundation for our success on the day. We led 2-0 at half-time and added a quick-fire double shortly after half-time to leave us in control and Davinson insists a strong opening is always so important in matches.

"Of course, everyone knows it's better if you can open the game up as early as possible but sometimes it's difficult. When you have the possibility to start quickly it is good and we had that opportunity (against Southampton).

"We started the game well and it was more helpful for us when we scored the first goal because we opened the game up. After that, we had more possession and more chances to score the goals."

PLAYERS SPREAD FESTIVE CHEER

Hospital visits help lift spirits during the Christmas period...

Our players visited five local hospitals just before Christmas to deliver presents and some festive spirit in the children's wards.

The annual visits saw members of our first team squad, as well as players from Spurs Ladies, spread some joy during this tough time of year for patients and families.

Players dropped into the wards at Barnet, Whittington in Archway, North Middlesex University Hospital in Edmonton, Whipps Cross in Leytonstone and Princess Alexandra in Harlow.

Handing out presents at Barnet were Moussa Sissoko, Georges-Kévin Nkoudou, Victor Wanyama and Sarah Wiltshire, while Mousa Dembele, Christian Eriksen, club captain Hugo Lloris and Spurs Ladies captain Jenna Schillaci stopped by at Whittington.

In attendance at North Middlesex were Toby Alderweireld, Juan Foyth, Jan Vertonghen and Bianca Baptiste, while Harry Kane visited Whipps Cross with team-mates Paulo Gazzaniga, Kyle Walker-Peters and Spurs Ladies player Maya Vio.

In Harlow, Michel Vorm, Anthony Georgiou, Kazaiah Sterling and Renee Hector spent time helping young patients unwrap their gifts.

Jan said: "We do it every year – it's a great initiative. The children are in a very difficult situation when they're here and especially around Christmas, it's good to help them in any way that we can. It's hard for them but we try to give them a little support by bringing them a present and listening to their stories. It's very important for us to do this."

Harry was born at Whipps Cross and added: "It's close to my heart so it's great to come back and see the kids who are going through a tough time at Christmas. Whenever we get the time to do something like this, it's a great feeling and it means a lot to the players to visit the hospitals. Anything we can do to give something back, we enjoy it and it's something we all want to do."

Michel said: "To see the joy and the excitement that you bring to the kids, even when they are going through tough times, is great. It gives you a very good feeling and the kids as well, it's a perfect combination. I've got three kids myself and you know that these situations are the worst, so if you can do something to make them smile it's always good."

Christian added: "It's great to see smiles on the children's faces, support them and give them happiness. It's special to be here as I'm going to be a dad myself. We know how much we can give back and how it makes a big difference for the kids and parents."

Victor said: "It's important to come here and see the kids. They need support during hard times and I hope we have made them a little bit happier by visiting them and giving them some presents – it's important that we try to keep them smiling. I hope they will get better soon."

MOCK INTERVIEWS FOR PREMIER LEAGUE WORKS PARTICIPANTS

The Tottenham Hotspur Foundation has completed mock interviews with their Premier League Works participants to further prepare them for employment after the programme.

Premier League Works uses the power of football to engage young people aged 16-24 who are not involved in education, training or employment. For some of the participants, this was the first time they had been in an interview scenario.

During recent weeks, the group have completed various employment and life skills sessions to assist them in applying for jobs or returning to education.

One of the participants, Troy, said: "The mock interview was really helpful. I've never had an interview before and it helped me to be asked relevant questions related to a real job. It felt like a real interview and I received some good feedback on what to improve."

The programme, funded by the Premier League Charitable Fund and delivered in partnership with the Professional Footballers Association and the Prince's Trust, provides young people with support to develop their personal and social skills giving them the confidence and the experience they need to make a positive transition back into education, access training or gain meaningful employment.

Move 4 You

The Tottenham Hotspur Foundation's Move 4 You programme, which provides a tailored physical activity programme for people living with and beyond cancer, is nearing its 1,000th referral in three and half years.

Move 4 You involves 12 physical activity sessions followed by ongoing support for 12 months, led by the Foundation's specialist activity instructors.

The programme is tailored to each individual, supporting people of all abilities to engage with a variety of activities to help physical wellbeing during and after cancer treatment.

One person who has benefited from Move 4 You is Brian, who said: "I feel totally supported by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation team and the benefits that I am enjoying today physically, mentally and spiritually is down to their hard work and dedication."

As part of the programme, the Foundation will begin to offer Nordic walking sessions on Tuesday mornings in Finsbury Park, from early January. Nordic walking, which requires the use of poles, has several physical benefits including mobilising and strengthening the upper body, lower body and core muscles, while also improving posture and cardiovascular health.

Studies have demonstrated that Nordic walking is beneficial for cancer patients and those affected by lymphoedema.

A signing from Nottingham Forest in 1992, Teddy Sheringham was one of those players just born to wear the white shirt of Spurs. An artist of delicate talents, he brought a new dimension in centre-forward play to our squad, a goalscorer as recognised for his ability to create openings for others as he was for applying the finishing touch himself.

Sheringham started his career with Millwall, scoring 111 goals in eight seasons to make him their record scorer, before moving to Forest in July, 1991. At Millwall he had learnt to take care of himself in the hard, physical world of long-ball football, with Forest he had to adapt to the passing style demanded of Brian Clough's sides. He found the target regularly for Forest but when Terry Venables offered him the opportunity to sign for the club he had supported as a boy, Teddy had no hesitation in agreeing the move.

Millwall and Forest had relied heavily on Sheringham's scoring knack for the bulk of their goals. When he arrived at the Lane in August, 1992 those talents were desperately needed as we had only scored twice in our opening four games in the early days of the inaugural Premier League.

As he settled in the goals began to flow. He opened his account in a 2-0 win over Sheffield United in N17 and by the end of the season he had netted 21 times for us, with a single for Forest making him the Premiership's top scorer, and won his first England cap against Poland.

When Jurgen Klinsmann was signed, much of the goalscoring burden was lifted from Sheringham's shoulders and he was given more freedom to show the full range of his talents. He struck up an immediate and highly productive rapport with the German captain, dropping deep to utilise the space between midfield and attack that defenders hate to stray into and displaying a perceptive appreciation of how to unlock defences.

In all he did, Sheringham displayed class and a delicate touch, whether it was leaping high to flick the ball on, floating passes out to the wing or finishing with a perfect chip over the 'keeper. Klinsmann prospered beside him and was later to acknowledge Sheringham as the best strike partner he ever had.

With England he formed a devastating partnership with Alan Shearer, his performances in Euro '96 showing that, even at the highest level, intelligence and skill were just as important as pace and power.

He enjoyed great success during a four-year spell with Manchester United, helping them win the 'Treble' in 1999 by scoring in the FA Cup Final then coming off the bench to grab a last-minute equaliser and set up the injury time winner in the Champions League Final.

In May, 2001, Teddy returned to the Lane, his experience and know-how a vital element to Glenn Hoddle's young squad. Sheringham relished his position as the elder statesman of the team showing he still possessed the same wonderful skills and goalscoring instincts.

Teddy strikes against Chelsea

He started his second spell with us on 98 goals, but swiftly became a member of the '100 Club' when he netted twice against Chelsea in September, 2001. Sheringham went on to add a further 24 goals in our colours, his last coming in a 3-2 win at West Bromwich Albion in April, 2003, to leave him ninth on our all-time top-scorers list – a position he still occupies to this day.

Teddy went on to play for Portsmouth and Colchester United, while he also had a three-year spell with tonight's opponents West Ham, scoring 28 goals in 76 league appearances for the Hammers. He is currently managing Indian Super League side ATK, with his former Spurs strike partner Robbie Keane among his squad.

KANE BY NUMBERS

As records tumbled on Boxing Day, one major club milestone was somewhat overlooked as Harry Kane completed a year to remember with a hat-trick in our 5-2 win against Southampton.

Harry's eighth treble of the year took him to 123 goals for Spurs - leapfrogging Robbie Keane (122) into our all-time top 10 goalscoring list. He's just a goal behind Teddy Sheringham in ninth.

As we racked up a fourth win in five over the festive period, Harry's goalscoring exploits have been well-documented – he's set a new record mark of 39 Premier League goals in a calendar year, surpassing Alan Shearer's tally of 36, while his hat-trick against the Saints took him beyond Lionel Messi's 54 as the top goalscorer for club and country across Europe in 2017.

"A lot of the build-up was about Alan Shearer's record and if I could break it but I was calm, I was confident and when you have players like Christian Eriksen putting in crosses like that (for the first goal) as a striker, it's a dream," said Harry after the Saints match as he revealed his pride at becoming one of the top goalscorers in our history.

"It's amazing. I grew up watching Keano play and scoring goals and the same with Teddy. To be up there with those names is something I'm very proud of but you know what I'm like – I want to continue it and hope 2018 is even better."

YOUR SHOUT

This is the place for you, our supporters, to share your greetings, wishes, messages and photos through our matchday programme. If you want something to be included, please email us at programme@tottenhamhotspur.com and we will do our best to feature it.

BIRTHDAYS

Best wishes to the following Spurs supporters:

Season ticket holder GRANT SMITH, who celebrated his 25th birthday on Tuesday with a trip to watch us play at Swansea City.

One Hotspur member TYLER FISHER, who yesterday celebrated his ninth birthday.

Season ticket holder NATHAN GIBSON, who celebrates his 40th birthday tomorrow and is here this evening with his dad ERIC.

ANDREW KING, who celebrated his 34th birthday yesterday.

Season ticket holder DENNIS PLUCKNETT, who yesterday celebrated his 52nd birthday.

GLOBAL SPURS

Season ticket holders RAY and JETTY FORD soak up the atmosphere in the away dressing room at the Santiago Bernabeu stadium the day after our Champions League draw against Real Madrid in October.

BABY SPURS

IMOGEN FOGELMAN is only four months old and already loves watching Spurs on TV. Her daddy RICHARD, mummy SAM and two brothers JOSHUA and JORDAN are all season ticket holders.

This is One Hotspur Dribbler ELLISON STACHURSKI, who loves his new kit and celebrated his first birthday on Thursday.

ALFIE LIDDELL was born on December 11. Dad STEWART and sister CHARLOTTE are season ticket holders and can't wait to bring Alfie and his brother HARRISON to watch us play in the future.

GALLERY

Seven-year-old RORY PARLEY was delighted to meet our Spanish striker Fernando Llorente after our 5-1 win against Stoke City recently. Rory was at the game with his dad KEVIN, a season ticket holder.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

DAVE CLARKE, who passed away on November 24 at the age of 87. A supporter since 1948 and a long-time season ticket holder, he attended nearly every home game in both of our League Championship winning seasons of 1951 and 1961 and his favourite players were Len Duquemin and Dave Mackay.

STANLEY MILLS, who passed away on December 21, aged 89. He was born in Lower Holloway and was a season ticket holder until ill health prevented his attendance. He leaves behind a wife Peggy and sons Paul and Andrew.

BARRY GREEN, a lifelong fan who sadly passed away on December 10 after a short battle with cancer. He will be sorely missed by his children Mark, Barry, Mandy and Clare, and devoted wife Rowena.

We would like to extend our condolences to their family and friends at this sad time.

CHRISTMAS ARRIVES EARLY FOR JUNIOR MEMBERS!

Fifty lucky young fans won tickets to the annual One Hotspur Junior Christmas Party, held this year for the first time at our Training Centre

It's one of the highlights in the calendar for young fans – and only our Junior Members are eligible to win a golden ticket invitation.

Our young guests took part in five different activity sessions alongside their heroes, who included Serge Aurier, Ben Davies, Dele Alli, Eric Dier, Erik Lamela, Danny Rose, Davinson Sanchez, Heung-Min Son and Tashan Oakley-Boothe, while there was also a guest appearance from Spurs Santa and Chirpy.

Games in the indoor dome included Penalty Shootouts, Balloon Keepy Uppys, Football Ten Pin Bowling, Find The Player Cards and even a Pie Face competition! There was also the opportunity for Juniors to get their merchandise signed by the players as a keepsake to remember the day.

Eric Dier said: "It's always a pleasure for us to attend the One Hotspur Junior Christmas Party. Being able to kick off Christmas for our young fans with such a memorable day is something we enjoy doing.

"We love meeting the young fans of the future and to give something back over the festive season. Seeing the excitement on all their faces, I definitely think they all had a great evening."

Here are just some of the comments we received from the parents of Juniors who attended:

"It was a great evening which has made a Spurs-mad youngster even more of a fanatic"

"Both boys have had the best Christmas present ever. All thanks to Tottenham Hotspur for making this dream come true"

"Jensen and Ashton have said this has been the best day of their lives so far and we will have a job trying to top this one"

QUESTION TIME

A quick quiz to keep you busy during half-time...how many questions can you get right on our previous matches and club connections with tonight's opponents?

QUICK SIX

1. Two players with the same surname left West Ham to join us – one in April, 1905, and the other in August, 2004. Can you name them?

2. In the 43 Premier League games we've played against West Ham to date, how many goals have we scored?

3. Who left us to join the Hammers as part of the deal which saw us sign Martin Peters in 1970?

4. Which player was brought down for a last-minute penalty at the Lane last season, which Harry Kane converted to give us a 3-2 win against West Ham?

5. The last goalless draw between the two sides came at the Lane in March, 2011, but who were the two goalkeepers that day?

6. Two of our former strikers scored their first-ever goals for Spurs against West Ham – and also played for the Hammers during their careers. Can you name them?

MISSING MEN...

Here's our starting line-up from our dramatic 4-3 Premier League win at Upton Park in March, 2007, but who is missing from the line-up?

CAREER PATH

Can you name the former Spurs and West Ham forward who also played for Shakhtar Donetsk, Dynamo Kiev, Fenebahce and Rubin Kazan in his career?

WHO SCORED?

Name the defender who scored a last-minute winner at the Lane as we beat the Hammers 3-2 in September, 2002?

GOALS GALORE...

Eight of our current squad have scored goals for us against West Ham but can you name them all?

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Action from a Division One clash between the two sides in September, 1973, but can you name the two legends pictured?

ANSWERS : Missing Men: (Teemu) Tainio, (Dimitar) Berbatov. Career Path: Sergei Rebrov. Who Scored: Anthony Gardner. Goals Galore: Dele, Sissoko, Eriksen, Winks, Alderweireld, Rose, Dier and Kane. From The Archives: Martin Chivers and Bobby Moore. Quick Six: 1. Chris Carrick and Michael Carrick; 2. 62; 3. Jimmy Greaves; 4. Heung-Min Son; 5. Heurelho Gomes and Rob Green; 6. Les Ferdinand and Bobby Zamora.

SPURS AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

We do not tolerate discrimination of any sort at the Club, on the pitch or in the stands. If you experience any form of discrimination, help us to eliminate it from football by reporting it.

If you experience anti-social behaviour close to you, please send a text to 87474 with: FOUL (language & behaviour); RACISM (Racist chanting & shouting); HPH (Homophobic chanting); DRINK (Drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (Smoking in the stadium); STAND (Standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnic or smoke bomb), along with your location and the location of the offence – Block, Row, Seat. Foul, abusive and racist language will not be tolerated in this Stadium, but should you experience any of these and wish to report it, you can do so by texting the Control Room on the above number.

You do not have to put up with mindless supporters who are intent on ruining your day with us, so use the system, report the individuals and let us take it from there.

NO SWEARING IN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that swearing is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

NO SMOKING WITHIN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that smoking – including e-cigarettes – is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

Maurice (right) holds the FA Cup aloft with John White after our success here in 1962

WEMBLEY MEMORIES

Each matchday, Andy Greeves speaks to a former Spurs player about their memories of Wembley Stadium. This evening, Maurice Norman looks back on his multiple matches at the 'Home of Football' for both club and country.

Our players arrived at Wembley Stadium for the FA Cup Final of May 6, 1961, looking to create a major piece of English football history. With Bill Nicholson's side having already claimed the League Championship title that season, opponents Leicester City stood between us becoming the first club of the 20th century to win the 'Double'.

While our side were no strangers to big occasions, defender Maurice Norman admits a trip to the national stadium for the showpiece final with the Foxes was an "overwhelming" experience.

"Arriving at Wembley from the Hendon Hall Hotel, we came out onto the pitch pre-kick off," remembers Maurice, who played 411 competitive matches for us between 1955 and 1965, scoring 19 times. "Having never been out on the Wembley pitch before personally, it was a shock… suddenly the vastness hit you and it was overwhelming. But I just remember the words of Bill Nic. 'We are good enough, we have the necessary technical abilities and we will win'. That was all we needed to hear… Bill had spoken!"

Nicholson's words rang true as goals from Bobby Smith and Terry Dyson gave us a 2-0 victory that May

> “I COLLECTED MY MEDAL, BUT I COULDN’T REALLY TALK TO HER MAJESTY BECAUSE I WAS NOT A PRETTY SIGHT WITHOUT MY FALSE TEETH!”

Maurice (no 5) looks on as Gordon Banks thwarts a Scottish attack here at Wembley in April, 1963 afternoon in 1961, in front of a crowd of 100,000. Skipper Danny Blanchflower led our players up the famed 39 steps of the Royal Box at the original Wembley Stadium to collect the trophy from the Duchess of Kent.

“The fans were cheering and clapping and I remember getting bashed about a bit going up the old steps to collect my medal,” smiles Norman. “It seemed as if everyone wanted a piece of us that day!”

Maurice and Spurs returned to Wembley a year later to face Burnley in another FA Cup Final. Jimmy Greaves gave us an early lead, only for Jimmy Robson to equalise for the Clarets shortly after the half-time break. Smith then scored in the cup final for a second successive year to restore our advantage, before a Blanchflower penalty sealed our 3-1 triumph.

Norman, who wore our number five shirt that afternoon, has his own unique memory of the day.

“That was the match where I lost my false teeth!” laughs the Norfolk-born defender. “Knowing we would meet the Queen, whether we won or not, I made the decision to give Bill Brown my upper plate to keep in his cap. I was going to retrieve them before we went up the steps of the Royal Box at full-time, but between the start of the match and the end, they had gone missing. I collected my medal, but I couldn’t really talk to Her Majesty, because I was not a pretty sight without my false teeth!”

Just 15 days after his second FA Cup success, Maurice made his England debut in a 2-0 victory over Peru in Lima. He was subsequently named in Walter Winterbottom’s 22-man squad for that summer’s World Cup in Chile, with the defender starting all four of the Three Lions’ matches at the tournament. His next international appearance came in a 1-1 draw with France on October 3, 1962, prior to his first match for England at Wembley against Scotland on April 6 the following year.

“Having been in the England side for nearly a year prior to the game against Scotland, I was feeling confident, strong and part of the team,” comments Norman. “Of course, being in an England team at Wembley for the first time against our big rivals Scotland was something else. I remember Bryan Douglas’ performance on the day. At 5’6”, he was originally thought of as being too slight for football, but his skill really came to the fore in this match.”

Douglas scored for the Three Lions in front of a crowd of 98,606 but a Jim Baxter brace gave the Scots a 2-1 victory that day. The match was the first to be played at Wembley Stadium since an all-encircling roof had been installed at the venue at a cost of £500,000. A month later, Norman was selected for England's 1-1 draw against Brazil here.

He also appeared in his country's 3-1 victory over a 'Rest of the World' side – featuring the likes of Lev Yashin, Raymond Kopa, Alfredo di Stéfano, Eusébio and Denis Law – on October 23, 1963. The match at Wembley was arranged as part of the Football Association's centenary celebrations.

"I was delighted to be picked to play in such an historic occasion," says Maurice, who won a total of 23 caps for England during his career. "We played very well. The Rest of the World team were made up of individual stars who weren't used to playing together. Their performance was more disjointed, whereas we combined very well. Di Stéfano had all his usual artistry and Eusébio made dashes through the middle. They certainly had brilliance about them but it was our tactics that paid off."

Norman was involved in another significant Wembley occasion a month later as England played under the stadium's floodlights for the entire 90 minutes for the first time in their 8-3 thrashing of Northern Ireland. The ground had first staged a floodlit match in 1955 as London took on Frankfurt in the Inter-Cities Fairs Cup while the last 15 minutes of the Three Lions' friendly against Spain the following month were also played under the lights.

"Although we won by such a big score line that night, my abiding memory is how disappointed (Sir) Alf Ramsey was with the goals we conceded," reflects Norman on that 'illuminated' win.

Little would Maurice have known at the time, but his final Wembley Stadium appearance was to come in England's 2-2 draw with Belgium on October 21, 1964. It was his penultimate match for the Three Lions, with his last inclusion in Sir Alf Ramsey's line-up coming in a 1-1 draw with the Netherlands in Amsterdam a few months later.

"Like all good things, my international days eventually came to an end," says Norman. "I was 31 at the time and still enjoying my great love, football. Looking back, I feel very fortunate to have played the number of matches I did both for Spurs and England at Wembley Stadium. It's a very special venue and it holds so many great memories for me."

It was a double fracture of the tibia and fibula – playing in our friendly against a Hungarian Select XI in November, 1965 – that forced Norman's premature retirement. He had long since established himself as a Spurs legend and also an important player for his country. Having donned our shirt on 411 occasions, the 83-year-old stands 10th on our list of all-time appearance makers. He is also a member of our 'Hall of Fame', as he is at his other former club Norwich City.
